1) Our London business is good, but Vienna and Berlin are quiet. Mr. D. Lloyd has gone to Switzerland, and I hope for good news. He will be there for a week at 1496 Louvriot Street and then goes to Turin and Rome. He will join Colonel Parry and arrive at Athens, ~~Greece~~, Greece, on November 27 or December 2. Letters there should be addressed to King James Blvd 3880. We expect Charles E. Fuller on Tuesday. Dr. L. McQuard and Robert Unger, Esq., left on the 'Y.X.' Express tonight.

2) My daily routine is structured around maintaining balance between academics, extracurricular activities, and personal growth. I wake up at 7 AM every morning and begin my day with a regular workout, which keeps me energized and focused. After exercising, I dedicate a short period of time reviewing my tasks for the day. Once ready, I dive into my coursework, and, being a computer science student, most of my time goes into coding and learning new concepts related to data science and algorithms. I also dedicate a couple of hours to work on my app development projects. ~~and~~ During the day, I balance my academic commitments with my roles as General Secretary, Technical and Finance Lead for various clubs. Finally, I plan the next day before heading to bed, making sure I am prepared to tackle the next challenge.
