Our London business is good, but Vienna and Berlin are quiet. Mr. D. Lloyd has gone to Switzerland, and I hope for good news. He will be there for a week at 1496 Louvriot Street and then goes to Turin and Rome. He will join Colonel Pargy and arrive at Athens, Greece, on November 27 or December 2. Letters there should be addressed to King James Blvd 3580. We expect Charles E. Fuller on Tuesday. Dr. L. Mc Quaid and Robert Unger, Esq., left on the 'Y.X.' Express tonight.

My Journey

On 16th of February, 2005, Wednesday. I took birth in a hospital of Nayaghar, Odisha. It was the time of dusk, at around 6:30, it was a golden hour. My father and grandparents were overflowing with happiness seeing me for the first time. Time went by and I spent few months at my grandparent's house. I played with all the village children there. Soon I, with my mother, was taken to Faridabad where my dad was in a company. For 2 years I stayed there playing with ~~the~~ our landlord. After that we moved to Pune, Maharashtra. That was ~~my~~ where my entire childhood was shaped. We stayed in a society and most my friends over there used to go to the same school as me. For 9 years I lived my best life in Pune. Then when I became 12, we moved to Chennai where it was difficult to even interact/make friends. It became monotonous, I still managed to make a few great-friends along the way.
