The a college student, my daily routine is quite busy I wake up early in the morning, get freshen up and get ready for classes. After having a quick breakfast I head to class room by walking. I attend lectures and take notes to stay focused in the class. Between classes I talk to friends and watch social Media during breaks. At lunch time; I have a meat in the college Mess. In afternoon, I either have more classes or labs or assignments in the Computer lab. After college, I return to hapter room and play badminton. Then spend time submitting assignments. In dinner I will have some mess food and talk to family members and sleep early to be ready for the next day
